

Team building activities (German activity 6)

We tried out simple games of team building. For this purpose the kids must all help together to let a little ball roll over those half pipes. This only works when they all work together and respect each other.

So they have to find a common strategy to solve the task or they all fail.

